The Champion: March - April 2024

News Release Date 02-26-2024

Inside latest edition of The Aroutdale Champion, you'll read about everything that's going on in your commodity preference and fire protection

• An update on Troutdale's police and fire protection

• Allowing more dog access in neighborhood parks

• Our new Director of Community Development

• How to reserve a community garden plot

• A quick glance at Raider Days Spring Carnival

... and much more!

The Champion was the only newspaper published in Multnomah County, outside of Portland, during the years 1893-1896. Today, it is solely the newsletter of the City of Troutdale.

The Champion is published bi-monthly and is distributed by mail to all residents of the City. You can read the entire edition below. If you are viewing on a mobile device, click here to Champion are included in various web pages in this site and on our social media channels.