

The Public Safety and Equity Advisory Committee (PSEAC) is charged with evaluating and making recommendations to the City’s elected and appointed officials on matters relating to public safety including law enforcement, fire and medical services.

Included in this charge is that the committee make recommendations that may be necessary to ensure that all of these public services are provided in a fashion that ensures equity, regardless of a person's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, age, disability and other classes protected under Oregon statutes. The PSEAC is not charged with reviewing use of force complaints or citizen’s complaints against public safety personnel.

Agendas, minutes and audio of previous meetings are available in our online archive. Videos of each meeting will be usually be available on our YouTube channel within a day after the meeting takes place.
